Attention: Exchange products are sold only on surrender of old products of the same make, construction and compound, which show no external, visible damage and of which vital parts such as block, cylinder head, crankshaft and/or camshaft can be remanufactured in a normal way. In purchasing an exchange product a deposit will be charged. As soon this credit note together with the old product (in assembled condition and "not" in components) is returned, we will credit the deposit. Unless old products are supplied with defects as mentioned up here, the extra costs will be charged to the customer. With the help of this overview mentioned below you can determine yourself if you are entitled to the restitution of the deposit money and/or a charge for extra costs.
